

December 2014

Cover story. The interview	1, 2
- "Seb Group has a retail network of 1,057 stores in 43 countries". By Géraud d'Adhemar, Retail Director at Seb Group.
Retail Expert	3
- How to recruit the best international retail executives.
Europe	4, 5
- Hungary. Foreign retailers under threat from a proposed new bill.
- German Aldi, soon in China?
- France. Commercial catering is still under pressure.
- Obi and Adeo swallow rivals Baumax in the D.I.Y market.
- Clothing. Primark's European expansion fuels growth.
- In short: JD Sports returns to core business... Metro AG closed in Greece... Roberto Cavalli is still looking for a buyer... Russian consumption collapses...
Americas	6, 7
- Tim Hortons takeover moves forward.
- Home Depot reports a steady sales growth.
- The U.S.A aims to attract more Chinese visitors.
- In short: Uber is competing convenience stores... McDonald's U.S. sales decline... Pao de Acucar aims to double Assaï store network in Brazil..KFC opened in Bolivia...
Africa, Middle East	7, 8
- South Africa. Steinhoff expands from furniture to fashion retail.
- Auchan will land in Tadjikistan.
- Ikea to make inroads in Morocco and in South Korea.
- Kazakhstan attracts international retailers.
- In short: Sony is opening a submarine store in Dubai... Qatar opens a all-women shopping centre... French budget retailer Tati opens in Dubai...
Asia	9
- What strategy for Tesco in Asia?
- Burger King. No-beef restaurant for an Indian debut.
- In short: India to become the world's largest cotton producer? Decathlon wants to expand in Western China... Japan postpones VAT increase...
Studies	10, 11
- 2014 comparison overview of European purchasing powers.
- Russia's shopping centres race to 2 nd place after France.
People	12
- Costco's co-founder passed away... A new Head of Finance at Darty... A new CEO at Big C Thailand...Marks & Spencer will host a new CFO in 2015...	