

January 2015

Cover story	1, 2
- Flashback on 2014. What key events in the retail sector in 2014?
International	3
- Home furnishing sector. Ikea reinvents its strategy and targets city centres.
- Catering sector. U.S.A operators lead the global ranking.
- Wage rises stalled in the developed countries.
- IPOs bounced back in 2014.
Europe	4, 5
- What prospects for Belgian retail in 2015?
- Hungary tightens rules for foreign retailers.
- Primark is eyeing Karstadt department stores in Germany.
- Poland and France. Home equipment sector remains fragile.
- In short: Russia's volatile consumption hits peaks... Level Shoe District soon in Italy...Burger King to enter Greece...American Eagle Outfitters heads to the U.K...
Americas	6, 7
- U.S. households shift spending for necessities.
- Fewer visitors but spending more in United States malls.
- Mexico. Can modern retail replace outdoor markets?
- Panama attracts international luxury retailers.
- In short:Forever 21 is thinking smaller...Costco's sales keep growing...Credit financing business hampers Conn...Carrefour expands in Argentinean property...
Africa, Middle East	7, 8
- Emirates. Marka gains ground in sport retail.
- Qatar's investors target Asia.
- In short: Sonae expands franchise in Mozambique...Kenya attracts American fast-food retailers...Chalhoub to launch specialised department store in Abu Dhabi...
Asia	9
- Western retailers retreat from non-food in China.
- China. Wal-Mart moves into mall development.
- South East Asia. Malaysia and Thailand's wages stand in the average.
- In short:Bvlgari is back in India...Lulu Group is heading to India...Apple plans a major Indian expansion...Italian Conad to enter China... Retail margins dropped in China...
Studies	10, 11
- Why outlet centres are moving into the mainstream.
- The world's most expansive shopping streets in 2014.
People	12
- End of the Jeffries era at Abercrombie & Fitch... A fresh young CEO at Conforama...	