

Cover story.....1, 2, 3
 -“Half of the customers at L’Oréal Outlet no longer buy our beauty products in supermarkets”. By Delphine Leblanc, Director Retail and Clearance

International.....4
 -German department stores are entering the era of globalisation
 -Ahold-Delhaize, a retail supermarket giant astride two continents

Europe.....5
 -John Lewis. “Free click and collect is an unsustainable service”
 -Home electrical. Service quality gains momentum at corners
 -In short: Auchan and Intermarché invest again in Portugal... A Qatari-Turkish alliance... Media Saturn is suffering continued disputes... House of Fraser is in fair growth... Home equipment retailer “But” prepares for sale...

Americas.....6
 -Casino suspected of corruption in Brazil
 -U.S.A. start-ups are revitalizing the malls
 -Who were the retail giants in 2014?
 -In short: Gap to close 175 stores... What does it cost to open a Subway restaurant? The U.S. Carlyle invests US$120 million in China’s e-commerce... Chinese Xiaomi to step into Brazil...

Africa, Middle East.....7
 - KKR is about to make foray in the Gulf
 - Is Africa in 2015 similar to China in the 1970s?
 - In short: Abu Dhabi to host a new Chalhoub concept...A US$1.3 billion-stake in Steinhoff for sale... Carrefour returns to Algeria... 7-Eleven to land in Dubai...

Asia.....8, 9
 - India. From traditional clothes to Western-style dresses
 - India, a new industrial frontier
 - China cuts some import taxes by 50 %
 - Muji to enter India in 2016
 - Will Tesco leave South Korea?
 - In short: Matahari makes a foray into premium retail in Indonesia... Hamleys to launch in Vietnam... Luxury sales fell by 1% within China... McDonald’s lets Chinese choose their taste...

Study.....10, 11
 - The world’s 100 largest luxury champions

People.....12
 - From Sears to Barnes & Noble... A Danish at Kingfisher... Subway under transition... Management shift at Rocher Group...