

June 2014

Cover story. The interview	1, 2
- Travel retail operations, a springboard to foreign expansion for retailers
International	3
- The average Canadian income equals that of the USA
- Fast Retailing focuses on China and on the USA
- Outlet centres: The race between North America and Europe
Europe	4, 5
- Media Saturn, Dixons and Darty review their footprints
- Department stores. Printemps is focusing on tourists
- Kingfisher is eyeing on France, Germany and Portugal
- In short: Hema to launch in the United Kingdom... Costco debuts in Europe... Dunkin' Donuts to enter Sweden... Mall of Scandinavia to open in 2015...
Americas	6, 7
- Crate and Barrel launches in Latin America
- Latin America. The health & beauty markets are consolidating
- Wal-Mart invests in small formats in the USA and store expansion in Asia
- In short: Subway to add 3,000 restaurants in 2014... J.Crew targets Hong Kong, London and Paris... Falabella department stores soon in Mexico?
Africa, Middle East	8
- China moves some factories to Africa
- Home equipment. Clas Ohlson opened in Dubai
- In short: Emaar soon listed in Dubai... Luxury retailers increase direct brand control in the Emirates... Foreign investments soon allowed in Saudi Arabia? Auchan invests in Tunisia... Lulu will launch the Galito restaurant franchise...
Asia	9
- Catering sector. Yum Brands is recovering in China
- Retail investments increase in Malaysia
- In short: Sephora to enter Australia... Indonesia: A race to expand between Alfamart and Indomaret... Marks & Spencer is in fair growth in India...
Study	10
- Europe's retail sector. 2013 assessment and prospects for 2014
Case study by Ebeltoft	11
- Between retailing, catering and animation, Eataly is going global
Movements	12
- Ikea. Ingvar Kamprad has stepped down... New General Manager at Leroy Merlin France... USA. A new interim CEO at Target	