

October 2014

Cover -	story. The interview
	By Patrick Chalhoub, CEO of Chalhoub Group.
International
-	Fashion. The neglected market of the 50-plus?
-	E-commerce. Asia and North America account for 2/3 of the global online trade.
Europe
- '	French department stores soon in Doha.
-	Ikea reported a 3% sales growth last year.
-	Russia. A fair growth in children's clothing market.
-	Europe's consumer credit fell in 2013.
-	The race is on for the French D.I.Y retail.
-	Euro and Dollar at exchange parity in 2017?
-	In short: After Vietnam, Metro AG closes in the United Kingdom Go Sport is subject to a takeover bid Dominos' Pizza takes root in Norway Mango reduces footprint in the BRICsIn 20 years, Athens has lost 25% of the population
Americas7
-	Canadian outlet space to double in 2014.
-	Home equipment. Falabella consolidates retail business in Peru.
-	In short: Toys'R'Us recovered growthWendy's is expected in India Williams Sonoma soon in Mexico Cencosud remains strong despite turmoil in Argentina
Africa -	, Middle East
-	Are the Gulf and North Africa too risky destinations for investors?
-	In short: Majid Al Futtaim expands Carrefour in Egypt and in Armenia The
	Entertainer expands into Central Asia Emaar Malls is moving towards I.P.O Pizza Hut returns to South Africa Steady sales for Kenyan grocery retailer Uchumi
Asia
-	India. Ikea moves forward, Reliance Retail moves back.
-	China. Investors' appetite grows for catering retail.
-	In short: Home appliance demand is in fair growth French retailer Picard soon in Tokyo Costa Coffee and Starbucks expand into AsiaFree trade agreement between Vietnam and the European Union on apparel
Studies
-	Who are the 500 largest retailers in the Asia Pacific region? Who were the U.S.A retail giants in 2013?