

September 2014

Cover story. The interview .....	1, 2
- Amazon India. "Ensuring delivery of goods for the last mile is the most challenging"
One country under the microscope .....	3
- India. How to invest in the physical retail sector in 2014?
International .....	4
- Who are the "millennials shoppers", born from 1981 to 2000?
- Outlet centres are thriving throughout the world
Europe .....	5, 6, 7
- Karstadt flies under the Austrian flag for one single euro
- Crate and Barrel enters Russia
- The parent company of Primark buys a shopping centre
- Home electrical retail. What future for Media Saturn?
- Vapiano faces globalisation stakes
- In short: Debenhams to reappear in Romania? Gap arrives in Slovenia and Austria... Hamley's expands into Russia... Klepierre and Corio about to merge in a massive deal... France adopted a law against Amazon...
Americas .....	8
- Brazil. Leroy Merlin invests in the Northeast region
- USA. A giant merger is expected amongst dollar store retailers
- In short: Home Depot is in fair growth... Beauty retailers expand in South America... Advent invests in Lululemon... Burger King to buy Tim Hortons for US$11 billion...
Africa, Middle East .....	9
- Spar goes global in Angola
- Department stores. Woolworths grows its footprint in Australia
- In short: Euronics soon in Kazakhstan... Marks & Spencer expands in Azerbaijan... Fair annual growth for Shoprite... Emirates to host a 2 nd outlet centre in 2015...
Asia .....	10
- Metro AG retreats from Vietnam for € 655 million
- Asia hosts 6 of the 10 most densely populated cities in 2014
- In short: Shinsegae to add 850 convenience stores in 2014... Gome to enter price battle in China... Fewer openings for Auchan in China... Habitat to set up in Singapore and China... Aeon is diversifying the businesses...
Study .....	11
- Where to invest in the retail sector in 2014?
People .....	12
- End of an era for Aldi... Dave Lewis joins Tesco... Crate and Barrel's CEO resigns...	