

Summary, September 2015

Special India focus.....1, 2, 3, 4, 5

- “In India, Metro Cash & Carry helps small traders grow.” By Jyotsna Murthy, Head of Communications, Metro India
- “Why do Indians highly value the independent shops?” By Bijou Kurien, Executive Chairman India of LCapital Asia (LVMH)
- India at a glance (Decathlon, Fabindia, Titan’s accessories...)

International.....6

- Ranking. What are the top occupiers at European outlet centres?
- Fashion. From cultural connection to global expansion

Europe.....7

- Tesco may reduce Turkish exposure
- Ikea invests in forestry to ensure supply
- Mall traffic remains buoyant in Southern and Eastern Europe
- In short: Jeronimo Martins in good shape... Tesco sends staff from head office to stores... Menswear, New Look’s strategic priority... German DIY is consolidating...

Americas.....8

- Kit & Ace, the concept of the month
- Best Buy recovers growth in the USA
- Is the Brazilian crisis a boon for franchisees?
- In short: In Brazil, Magazine Luiza plunges in Q2... Carrefour fuelled by Latin America... Abercrombie & Fitch revises management methods... Wal-Mart invests US$ 760 million in the Chinese e-player Yihaodian...

Africa, Middle East.....9

- Where do African millionaires live in 2015?
- Juicy Couture launches “Abayas” in the UAE
- A cross channel Ikea store opens in the Emirates
- In short: South Africa acts as springboard for U.S. restaurants...Xiaomi enters sub-Saharan Africa... Debenhams and Disney star team up in Dubai... Spain and Russia, hotspots for Arabian Gulf investors...Steady margin for Majid Al Futtaim...

Asia.....10

- In China, online and offline get closer
- Macy’s enters China via the Internet
- Ranking. Asia Pacific’s 10 largest retailers

Study.....11

- Where must retailers invest in 2015? (AT Kearney)

People.....12

- A new CEO for Yum Brands China...Power struggle at South Korea-based Lotte... Women’s products, a pillar of Marks & Spencer’s team... From Amazon to Redmart...