

Summary, March 2016

Cover Story.....1, 2, 3
 - Meeting with the Millennials from Shanghai, Sao Paulo and Copenhagen

International.....4
 - Beijing has more billionaires than Hong Kong
 - Poland and Indonesia face key regulatory changes
 - D.I.Y market decreases in Central and Eastern Europe

Europe.....5, 6
 - How East London gains retail traction
 - Denmark. Lego closes a record year
 - Turkish retailers rely on the domestic market
 - Unibail and Klepierre. Rivals compared
 - In short: Why Primark expects lower sales growth...Contactless payment surges in the U.K... LVMH shows robust growth in 2015...Russian supermarkets to supply in Iran... The German developer ECE is leaving Greece...El Corte Inglés to sell off €1 billion in assets... Mothercare drops a Polish curtain...

Americas.....7
 - Beauty sales contract in Brazil
 - Stitch Fix, the Concept of the Month
 - In short: Wal-Mart expects flat sales in 2016... Sears accelerate U.S. store closures... Brazil's retail sales shrank by 4.3% last year...The outlet sector concentrates in Latin America...

Africa, Middle East..... 8
 - Ikea will open in Morocco at last
 - Katara Plaza, the Mall of the Month
 - In short: Women's Secret, Intersport and Jack & Jones enter Algeria... KFC and Pizza Hut change hands in the Gulf... Chalhoub Group enters the catering sector... The U.A.E. will adopt VAT before 2019... Riyadh is in track to have a ski slope...

Asia.....9, 10
 - How to open an e-commerce business in Asia? Interview with Marcelo Wesseler, C.E.O. of SP Commerce
 - Hypermarkets concentrate in Southeast Asia
 - How Ikea prepares an Indian opening in 2017
 - In short: India to launch a smartphone at US$4...Flipkart stops grocery delivery in India...Outlet centres mushroom in Taiwan...Esprit fashion retailer struggles...

Study.....11
 - "Shrinkage is a huge profitability challenge for retailers" (Checkpoint Systems)

People.....12
 - A musician shareholder at G-Star... Mark Price, from the private to the public sector in the U.K... Stephane Maquaire, from Casino to Vivarte...