

Study .....	1, 10, 11
- CBRE: Who were the most international retailers in 2012?
One country under the microscope .....	2, 3
- Poland, a changing Central European giant
International .....	4
- Wal-Mart accelerates its international expansion
- Shopping centers: The “Top 15” of shopping mall footfall across Europe
- Financial results: Carrefour’s growth restart in China and in France
Europe .....	5, 6
- Montenegro: Delhaize Group retreats from the country
- United Kingdom: Primark maintains its 2-digit growth
- United Kingdom: Kingfisher, glimmers of hope in the housing market
- Russia: Developers target cities below one billion inhabitants
In short Europe .....	6
- In Q3, Metro sales dropped 0.5% like-for-like... Praktiker close to indebtedness... Sonae Sierra expands its Algerian footprint... Meccano under the Canadian flag... United-Kingdom: GDP uplift during the first half...
Americas .....	7, 8
- Brazil: The garment sector facing protectionism
- Canada: Hudson’s Bay has acquired Saks Fifth Avenue
- U.S.: Toys R’Us is targeting China and the U.S.
- U.S.: Home Depot and Lowe’s driven by the real estate recovery
- Ranking: The 10 biggest U.S. retailers in 2012
Middle East .....	8
- United Arab Emirates: Birth of a giant in the real estate sector
Africa, Asia .....	9
- Ethiopia: H&M from Asia to Ethiopia
- China: Tesco and CRE partnered in a joint venture
- India: Ikea targets four States
Movements .....	12
- Mercialys: Eric le Gentil appointed (France)... Gifam: Changes among the board (France)... Altarea Cogedim: Ludovic Castillo at the helm of the retail business (France)... Barnes & Noble reworks its executive direction (U.S.)... J.C.Penney: Ronald W.Tysoe enters the board (U.S.)...	